This is the second course in the MSU Modern Hebrew sequence. In this course you will continue to develop your knowledge of Modern Hebrew and accumulate skills in the four areas of language learning: speaking, listening, reading and writing. By the end of class, you will learn the four active and reflexive derived verb groups, in the present and past tense. You will also know more prepositions, and be able to structure more complex sentences in speech and in writing. You will also continue to expand your ability to ask questions and operate within the context of the language. You will give two presentations, and write an essay.

Homework and Exam Materials

- Homework assignments and exam materials will be available on D2L. At the beginning of the semester, all assignments from last year will be available, to give you an outline of the material you need to know and practice for every assessment. These will be replaced by this year's materials on the same day I will hand them out in class.
- Homework and essay assignments can be typed this semester for 5 points credit for each assignment. I recommend that you learn and practice your Hebrew typing as early as possible in the semester.

Extra Credit Opportunities

- You will have opportunities to participate in Israel-related cultural events, and receive up to .5 extra credit for these activities. Students who want to receive this extra credit, are required to attend at least two of these events and submit a 1 page written report about each event. For more information on these events, visit <http://jsp.msu.edu/>
- Students who invest extra time and effort during the semester, and show that they have grown, may receive up to .5 extra credit. To receive this credit, students have to show that their performance over the semester has improved by achieving higher grades on their assessments towards the end of the semester, in comparison with the beginning of the semester.

Course Policies

- Class attendance and participation are essential for successful language learning. You are allowed up to two unexcused hour absences in the semester. After the first two unexcused absences, for each unexcused absence, 5 points will be deducted from your attendance/participation grade. Being late by more than 5 minutes for class will be considered an absence. I reserve the right to deduct further points from the final grade (up to a failing grade) due to poor attendance. It is expected that you participate actively in class, and that you are ready to do so when called upon.
- Make up exams: Please note the dates for quizzes and tests. Make up exams will only be given in the case of illness or emergency, and will require a confirmation letter from a physician or other forms of documentation such as a letter from an advisor. Please communicate with me in advance if you anticipate this kind of an issue.
- Homework assignments: Will be given on a regular basis, with a set deadline. You are expected to do your homework on your own, and to abide by MSU policies of academic integrity. 10 points will be deducted from homework assignments' grade for every late day beyond the deadline for submission. Please contact me if you have trouble completing the homework on time.

- Academic Integrity

Article 2.III.B.2 of Student Rights and Responsibilities states: "The student shares with the faculty the responsibility for maintaining the integrity of scholarship, grades, and professional standards." In addition, the Dept. of Linguistics & Germanic, Slavic, Asian, & African Languages adheres to the policies on academic honesty specified in General Student Regulation 1.0, Protection of Scholarship and Grades; the all-University Policy on Integrity of Scholarship and Grades; and Ordinance 17.00, Examinations.

Therefore, unless authorized by me, you are expected to complete all course assignments, including homework, quizzes, tests and exams, without assistance from any source. Also, you are not authorized to use www.allmsu.com or other social media websites to complete any course work in this course. Students who violate MSU regulations on Protection of Scholarship and Grades will receive a failing grade in the course or on the assignment.

Faculty are required to report all instances in which a penalty grade is given for academic dishonesty. Students reported for academic dishonesty are required to take an online course about the integrity of scholarship and grades. A hold will be placed on the student's account until such time as the student completes the course. This course is overseen by the Associate Provost for Undergraduate Education.

Please see <https://www.msu.edu/~ombud/academic-integrity/index.html> for further information regarding academic integrity at MSU and the academic dishonesty reporting system.

- Learning Disabilities: Michigan State University is committed to providing equal opportunity for participation in all programs, services and activities. Requests for accommodations by persons with disabilities may be made by contacting the Resource Center for Persons with Disabilities at 517-884-RCPD or on the web at rcpd.msu.edu. Once your eligibility for accommodation has been determined, you will be issued a Verified Individual Services Accommodation (“VISA”) form. Please present this form to me at the start of the term, and/or two weeks prior to the accommodation date (test, project, etc.) Requests received after this date will be honored whenever possible. I am available at any time to discuss appropriate academic accommodations, suggests strategies to deal with them, and make arrangements.
- Health Policy: If you have a fever, do not attend class. Email me and inform me that you are ill, and you will be excused. Please be sure to keep me updated as to your condition. If you are sick with a fever for more than one day, a note from a physician is required to justify your absence. Do not come to class if you have flu symptoms. Wait until you are fever-free for 24 hours before coming to class.
- The use of phones, laptops or tablets is not allowed in class, unless specifically permitted by me. Students who use these devices without permission will be considered absent on the day, and points will be deducted from their attendance grade. Students are not permitted to use translation programs or websites for their homework. Work in which such programs will be used (unless specifically allowed by me) will be given a failed grade.
